Assistant Secretary of State for Congressional Affairs
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Secretary:

According to a May 13 press release (No. 116) issued by the Department of State, Israel has settled certain claims arising out of its attack on the U.S.S. Liberty on June 8, 1967. I note, however, that Israel has not settled the claim for damage to the ship.

I would appreciate it if you would inform me why the payment for damage to the ship has been delayed and when a settlement can be expected.

Sincerely yours,

J. W. Fulbright
Chairman
